

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN RECEIVING PRALUENT® (alirocumab)

Did you know there are 2 types of pharmacies? You might receive PRALUENT from a specialty pharmacy \(SP\), which handles and ships medicines that need extra care. Or you may pick it up from your neighborhood retail pharmacy. Either way, here's what you should know.

1 Your doctor's office will send your prescription to a pharmacy

- Allow some time for the insurance approval process
- Follow up with your doctor and insurance provider within a few days to check on the status of your prescription
- Behind the scenes, your doctor and pharmacy are working to get you access to PRALUENT

2 Your pharmacy will contact you to schedule delivery or pickup

- Ask your doctor for the name and phone number of your pharmacy, and write down the number so you can tell when the pharmacy calls
- Talk to your pharmacy about PRALUENT
 - Check that your health plan has approved PRALUENT for you to use
 - Schedule when to pick up your medicine or arrange a delivery date

3 Be sure your refills are processed regularly

- Be sure to refill PRALUENT as directed by your doctor
 - Ask whether your prescription should be filled monthly or every 60 to 90 days
 - You can arrange phone or text reminders through your pharmacy to refill your prescription
- MyPRALUENT® can send text reminders about when to take your medicine. Simply sign up at PRALUENT.com
